

AVIATOR'S MUSIC INC. WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

Last revised: April 6, 2008

Aviator's Music Inc. ("we", "us", or "our") recognizes the importance of your privacy and is committed to protecting it. Carefully read the following privacy policy as it outlines the type of information Aviator's Music Inc. collects on our website (www.aviatorsmusic.com and www.aviatorsmusic.ca), how we use that information, and the security measures we have in place to safeguard your personal information. By using our website, you are agreeing to all the terms and conditions of our privacy policy.

Collection, Use, and Disclosure of Information

Personal information is information that identifies you on an individual basis and that you would reasonably expect to be kept private. For example, personal information includes any information about an identifiable individual, such as your home address, telephone number, or personal e-mail address. Personal information does not include business contact information such as your name, title, position or business address.

Our policy is to collect only personal information that you knowingly and specifically provide to us, such as when you provide information to license accessible content from our website.

We may also collect anonymous information, such as your IP address, referral data, and browser type and language, for system administration purposes and to improve the quality of our services.

We do not sell, rent, trade, or otherwise disclose any personal information regarding our users to any third party unless you first provide us with your express consent. However, non-personal information about users may be shared with third parties and our affiliates and advertisers for marketing and research purposes. Moreover, we may disclose personal or anonymous information without your consent if we are ordered to do so by a legal process, such as a court order or a subpoena.

Cookies

We may enhance your experience on this website by using cookies on some pages. Cookies are small files containing a unique identification number. The first time you visit a website, cookies are sent to your computer's browser and then stored in your computer's hard drive. Cookies enable our website to recognize you as a unique user and increase the efficiency of your exploration of our website. Through our cookies we are able to obtain anonymous information, such as your online trends and patterns. Most browsers are configured to automatically receive cookies from the websites you visit. You can change the settings on your browser to notify you when cookies are being sent or to refuse all cookies. However, some websites may not operate properly if your browser is set to refuse cookies. Unless we are required to do so by law, we do not disclose any information obtained by our website's cookies. Furthermore, we will not combine any information obtained by our cookies with other information we may already have about you in order to identify you personally.

Links to Other Third-Party Websites

Our website contains links to other third-party websites which may have privacy policies that differ from ours. Therefore, you should review the privacy policies of these websites to be informed of their privacy practices. We bear no liability or responsibility for the privacy practices of any third-party website.

Security

Our procedures and systems are designed to protect your information from error, loss, and unauthorized access. We keep your information only as long as it is needed. We will continue to enhance our security features as new technology becomes available.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to update or revise our privacy policy at our discretion. If we make changes to this version of our privacy policy, we will post a notification on our home page. Your continued use of our website following the posting of the notification will constitute your agreement with all the terms and conditions of our new privacy policy.

Minors

Children (anyone under 18 years of age) should obtain their parent's consent prior to submitting any personal information about themselves to us or to any other party via the Internet.
